

Marisa Hall

Co-head of the Thinking Ahead Institute

Marisa is co-head of the Thinking Ahead Institute, a global not-for-profit investment research network focussed on mobilising capital for a sustainable future. The Institute's membership includes more than 40 of the world's largest asset owners and asset managers with combined responsibility for over USD$12 trillion. Marisa spends much of her time working on sustainability; value creation; culture and leadership; and diversity, inclusion & identity. Prior to joining the Institute, Marisa was a Senior Investment Consultant in Willis Towers Watson's investment advisory business.

Marisa is on the standing committee of Investment 20/20 which focuses on attracting young diverse talent into the industry and is also on the steering committee of #talkaboutblack, a powerful movement that aims to improve the conversation on ethnic diversity. This falls under the UK wide industry initiative, The Diversity Project.

Marisa is a Fellow of the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries (FIA) and holds the Investment Management Certificate (IMC). She has a MSc (Distinction) from CASS Business School, London and a first-class degree in Mathematics from the University of the West Indies. She has also been shortlisted for 'Woman of the Year' in the 2020 Women in Finance Summit & Awards Series.
