

Lucy Thomas

Head of Investment Stewardship, TCorp

Lucy joined TCorp in March 2018 as the Head of Investment Stewardship. TCorp is the financial markets partner of the NSW government with $110bn managed across investment portfolios and $100bn in bond issuance. Lucy's mandate is to embed stewardship principles across client portfolios using global best practice strategies. She leads the team to integrate ESG and active ownership to align with TCorp's investment model.

Prior to joining TCorp Lucy was Global Head of Sustainable Investment for Willis Towers Watson. She advised asset owners on building investment and organisational models that deliver long term sustainable returns. Lucy previously held investment roles at Morgan Stanley, Regal Funds Management and Invest Adriatic in Sydney, London and Europe.

Lucy is passionate about the investment industry embracing an awareness of social and environmental returns alongside financial returns. Lucy holds a BA (Hons I) from Trinity College, University of Dublin and is a CFA Charterholder.
