

Sue Brake

Former CIO Future Fund (Australia) and Member of Investment Risk & Advisory Panel, Monetary Authority of Singapore

Relevant Experience

As CIO of the Future Fund, Sue was responsible for achieving long term investment objectives across six government-owned funds, totalling A$250bn of diverse and complex global investments. Sue has 25 years' experience in leadership roles, is a globally recognised expert and a published author on investment management and risk management. She was formerly also Head of Strategic Advisory for WTW, External Expert on sovereign wealth management for the IMF, Senior Investment Strategist for NZ Super and Head of Capital Markets for NAB. Sue currently advises large asset owners on a range of investment-related issues.