

Rachel Farrell

Director of Public and Private Markets of Nest Pensions

Relevant Experience

Rachel Farrell is currently Director of Public and Private Markets for Nest Corporation and is responsible for the implementation of the Nest investment portfolio across all asset classes. Prior to this, Rachel spent 10 years at JP Morgan Asset Management, most recently as Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Country Head of JP Morgan Asset Management Australia, responsible for all of JPMorgan Asset Management's operations in Australia and New Zealand, based in Sydney. Prior to this, Rachel was JPMAM's Head of Sovereign and Institutional, Asia Pacific ex-Japan, based in Hong Kong, and prior to this Head of South East Asia and Australia Sovereign and Institutional based in Singapore. Before joining JPMAM in 2011, she was head of Asia Pacific investor relations and distribution for Citi Capital Advisors, the alternative asset management division of Citigroup and held a number of senior positions in her 12 years at the firm. She was also head of the Global Discretionary Portfolio Management Team for Bankers Trust Switzerland AG and a member of the Global Investment Committee.