

Remi Fernandez

Manager, Human Rights, Social Issues and Governance Issues

Remi is a Manager, Human Rights, Social Issues and Governance Issues for the Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI) where he oversees the human rights, social and governance issues programs covering issues such as decent work, diversity, equity and inclusion and responsible political engagement. During his time at PRI, Remi has co-authored the Decent Work Through Leadership paper and engaged with signatories on the new and former Reporting Frameworks and how it applied to multi-asset strategies. Remi holds a master's degree in Sustainability and Social Innovation from HEC Paris as well as a BComm from the University of Sydney.