

Aongus O'Gorman

Head of Investments, Australia

Aongus O'Gorman is the Head of WTW's Investments business in Australia, based in Brisbane. He is responsible for overseeing the company's asset consulting, delegated solutions and strategic advisory capabilities.

Aongus has 26 years of experience where he has been an asset owner, asset manager and investment consultant. He was responsible for the Delegated business and was also a member of the liquid diversifying strategies manager research team before transitioning to his current role.

Prior to joining WTW in 2015, Aongus was a managing director at Round Tower Solutions, a boutique consulting firm. Prior to that, he was director of implemented solutions for institutional fund manager QIC and was responsible for managing its external manager alpha program. He spent the early part of his career as a hedge fund manager within IIU Asset Strategies, a family office in Europe.

EDUCATION

Master of Business Studies, University College Dublin

Bachelor of Commerce, University College Dublin