

Martin Goss

Senior Director, Investments

Martin has 30 years of experience in the financial services industry, consulting to several of Australia's leading superannuation funds, government bodies and private sector organisations. Martin has significant expertise across the investment spectrum, advising Boards, Investment Committees and Management on governance and organisational effectiveness, strategy, portfolio construction and manager selection.

Alongside Ellie Boston-Clark, Martin co-heads WTW's Australian governance practice, which provides advice via both retainer relationships and ad hoc projects to small, medium and large asset owners.

Martin holds a Bachelor of Commerce, a Master of Economics and a Graduate Diploma in Applied Finance & Investments.
